Bible Study: Proverbs Chapter 2

Teacher: Preacher Eric Proctor

Theme: The Pursuit and Protection of God's Wisdom

"For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding." —
Proverbs 2:6 (KJV)

Introduction

Proverbs chapter 2 teaches that wisdom must be sought, valued, and applied. Those who pursue God's wisdom discover His protection, guidance, and understanding.

I. Seek Wisdom Diligently (Proverbs 2:1-5)

Receive God's Word, treasure His commandments, pray for understanding, and seek wisdom like hidden treasure.

Discussion: How much effort do we put into seeking God's wisdom?

II. God Is the Source of Wisdom (Proverbs 2:6-8)

True wisdom comes from God. He provides wisdom, knowledge, understanding, protection, and guidance.

III. Wisdom Protects Us (Proverbs 2:9-15)

God's wisdom helps us recognize right from wrong and protects us from evil influences and poor decisions.

IV. Wisdom Guards Against Temptation (Proverbs 2:16-19)

Wisdom helps us recognize temptation and understand the consequences of sinful choices before acting.

V. The Reward of Walking in Wisdom (Proverbs 2:20-22)

Those who follow God's wisdom experience spiritual stability, godly character, clear direction, and stronger faith.

Life Application

Ask yourself: Am I actively seeking God's wisdom? Am I allowing God's truth to guide my decisions?

Closing Thought

The more we seek God's wisdom, the more clearly we will recognize His direction, experience His protection, and walk confidently in His will.
